

Remembrance Day

WRPS REMEMBERS

Yesterday, at 11.00am on 11 November, WRPS students commemorated Remembrance Day. In their classrooms from Kindergarten to Year 6, students respectfully observed a minute's silence followed by listening to the Last Post and the Ode.

WHOLE SCHOOL TAKES A PEEK INTO 2015

Over the next two Thursdays the whole school will take the opportunity to prepare for 2015 by moving up one grade. With the pre-schoolers here for their last two orientation days, the school is perfectly placed to plan ahead and give students and teachers a chance to understand a little about what to expect from next year. For example, current Year 1 students will move to Year 2 classes and Year 2 teachers and so on, throughout the school. The classes that students will be in on these days will not be their class or teacher for next year but it should give them a snapshot of what to expect. This transition program will not interfere with other programs being run, including intensive swimming which will go ahead as normal.

POSITIVE BEHAVIOUR LEARNING FOCUS

When moving around the school

- Walk on cement
- Keep to the left on paths and stairs
- Stay with the class lines / group

SCHOOL ADMIN AND SUPPORT STAFF (SASS) RECOGNITION WEEK

At WRPS, we are taking the opportunity next week to thank our amazing School Administration and Support Staff. This incredible team of office ladies, ground keepers and school learning support officers do amazing work every day, often behind the scenes and without recognition. Next week, I encourage you to join our teaching staff in thanking our SASS colleagues for helping to make our school the great school it is! (PS. They only eat dark chocolate).

ETHICS CLASSES

Primary Ethics would like to gauge interest in holding an Ethics class at our school in 2015. If you would like your child to attend an Ethics class or you are interested in volunteering to teach a class, please contact Bryce on 6622 4741. For more information about Ethics classes, please go to www.primaryethics.com.au.
